AIDS Control Society observes National Youth Day

CITY CORRESPONDENT

GUWAHATI, Feb 12: Assam State AIDS Control Society (ASACS) in collaboration with Lalit Chandra Bharali College, Guwahati observed National Youth Day-2021 as part of National Youth Month in commemoration with the birthday of Swami Vivekananda with a flurry of activities, according to a press release issued recently.

As a part of the month-long programme, the college conducted various activities including tree decoration competition on January 22, quiz competition on January 28, art competition and speech competition on January 29 amongst the students. The topics were mainly related to HIV and youth.

In the central programme which was held on February 8 at the auditorium of Lalit Chandra Bharali College, various speakers who were invited spoke on the occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, Dipankar Mahanta from Vivekananda Kendra, Guwahati stressed the power of mind which needs to be developed.

Jahnabi Goswami from Assam Network of Positive People (ANP+) talked about stigma and discrimination faced by people living with HIV. Narrating her experiences of positive living, Goswami strongly advocated the need for HIV test before marriage.

Parijat Das from Vivekananda Kendra, Guwahati said, "In today's world, we need contributors, not competitors. We all need to contribute to the uplift of the society and for this, youth should know their potential."

Rajib Sarma, assistant director (publicity), Assam State AIDS Control Society (ASACS), spoke about the relation between the youth and HIV and also about the high-risk behaviour related to HIV.

Earlier in the programme, Dr Adison Ali, principal of Lalit Chandra Bharali College, welcomed the participants in the meeting.
